SRI VENKATESWARA UNIVERSITY, TIRUPATI, INDIA

Institute for Indian and Southwest Asian Studies (VIISAS) and Centre for Southeast Asian and Pacific Studies (CSEAPS), recognizing the mutual benefits of fostering academic exchange and partnership for furthering research and training on both sides, hereby enter into the following agreement:

Article 1: Centre for Indian Studies and CSEAP Studies agree to promote academic exchange and cooperation between the two institutions through programmes involving:

- o Exchange of institutes' members and researchers;
- o Exchange of academic information, including library materials and research publications;
- o Joint research activities including seminars, conferences, symposia and research projects;
- o Joint publication of books and journals.

Article 2: Both the parties understand that all financial arrangements will have to be negotiated on case to case basis and are subject to the availability of funds.

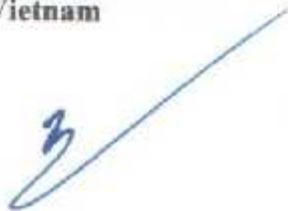

Article 3: Both the parties agree to act as hosts for members on academic exchange from the two institutions. Visiting scholars will, however, be responsible for their own financial support, while the host institution will help the visiting scholars find sources of relevant funding and suitable accommodations and to assist them in gaining access to library resources and research contacts.

Article 4: This MOU and any specific programme resulting from it may be modified or amended at any time by mutual consent of the two parties.

Article 5: This MOU comes into effect from the date of it being signed by the representatives of the respective institutions and would remain valid for a period of 5 years and may thereafter be renewed or terminated on mutual consent.

In witness to the above, two identical copies of this MOU in English are being signed by the authorized representatives of both institutions, and each party will retain one copy of the MOU.
