About the International Conference

DECEMBER 10
INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10 December — the day the United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR). The UDHR is a milestone document which proclaims the inalienable rights that everyone is entitled to as a human being - regardless of race, colour, religion, sex, language, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. Available in more than 500 languages, it is the most translated document in the world. This year's slogan for Human Rights Day is "Dignity, Freedom, and Justice for All." Anything is possible through education. Education and Development are two sides of the same coin. Education improves the confidentiality of an individual and encourages them to handle problems, issues and challenges smoothly. In the digital 21st century, many people are deprived based on their sex, language, colour, religion, caste, race, region, etc. Everyone has equal rights irrespective of sex, language, colour, religion, caste, race, region, etc. Education in general and Human Rights Education in particular, have pivotal roles in doing justice by protecting their dignity and freedom. The conference's main aim is to sensitize our students, scholars, teachers, policymakers and the common public to be aware of their rights, dignity and freedom.
