The Context

"India as an Emerging Global Power: The Journey Towards Vikasit Bharat @ 2047" aims to provide an intellectual platform to examine India's evolving position on the global stage. As the nation moves towards the centenary of its independence, this conference seeks to explore the transformative journey of India as a leading global power. The conference will bring together scholars, policymakers, industry leaders, and practitioners from across the world to deliberate on the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead for India in its quest to become a Vikasit Bharat (Developed India) by 2047. The discussions will delve into various facets of India's growth story, including its economic resurgence, technological advancements, sustainable development strategies, and contributions to global governance and diplomacy.

Through comprehensive sessions on themes like India's strategic role in global trade, its energy transition, cultural diplomacy, and rural transformation, the conference aims to uncover pathways for India to leverage its strengths and navigate global challenges. It will also focus on India's innovative approaches to education, healthcare, manufacturing, and digital transformation, underscoring the nation's potential to lead the world in shaping a sustainable, inclusive, and prosperous future.

As a center of excellence in higher education, S.V. University has consistently emphasized research, innovation, and interdisciplinary studies. It houses numerous research centers and labs, collaborating with national and international institutions to address contemporary challenges and contribute to global knowledge.

The university is also known for its inclusive ethos, promoting education as a means of empowerment and social transformation. With a dedicated faculty, a diverse student community, and a strong alumni network, S.V. University remains a beacon of learning, inspiring generations to contribute to the progress of society and the nation and the university is accredited by NAAC with an A⁺ in 2017 and 2023 after being accredited.

About the Department

The Department of Political Science and Public Administration at Sri Venkateswara University was established with the introduction of the M.A. in Political Science program in 1970. Initially functioning under the administrative control of the Department of Economics, the department gained independent status in February 1971, thanks to the visionary leadership of then Vice-Chancellor, Dr. D.J. Reddy.
