7.1.1 MEASURES INITIATED BY THE INSTITUTION FOR THE PROMOTION OF GENDER EQUITY DURING THE LAST FIVE YEARS

7.1.1 Measures Initiated By The Institution For The Promotion Of Gender Equity During The Last Five Years

Sri Venkateswara University strives in its spirit of academic and social endeavours in terms of women empowerment, women's rights and gender equity. Women represent a sizeable number within the university with 55% of girls enrolled in PG and 60% of girls enrolled in M.Phil. and Ph.D. programmes. This includes first generation graduates and women students hailing from rural background. Top positions like Rector, Registrar Controller of Examinations, Director of Distance Education and Principals have been represented by women during this period of assessment. Currently, four Executive Council Members and sixteen heads (33%) of the departments are also women.

Keeping this in view, the University has established a separate centre for Women's Studies. The Centre organizes several programmes and events to promote gender sensitisation among the students, teaching and non-teaching staff community within the campus and also within the academic jurisdiction of the university.

A Legal Aid committee (CASH) Club has been institutionalised in association with our Law department to provide legal awareness to women and students. Any issues for women can be directly informed to committee. The committee permits within 15-30 days. SVU regularly organises health and personal sanitation camps for women. Between 2017 and 2024, several camps were organised and 1021 women were benefitted. The women studies Centre has conducted programmes on Women Health Care Management, Sanitation and Hygiene Management and medical camps for women. Nearly 780 students have been benefitted from these programmes. The Centre also organised a workshop on Gender Vs Entrepreneurship for women students. The center for women studies, center for extension studies and Department of Home Science organizes gender sanitization programmes in and off campus.

Sri Venkateswara University has a common waiting hall in all the buildings. Need based personal and nutrition and diet counselling sessions are organised with the assistance of the department of Psychology and Nutrition and Diet Counselling Centre, Department of Home Science respectively. Napkin incinerator has been installed in the campus for the convenience of women. The entire campus is under surveillance cameras and adequate security services are in place to ensure women's safety.

The University addresses the grievances of women by forming appropriate committees with equal representation of women faculty in decision making processes. It has also provided equal opportunity to women staff and students. Every year Women's Day is celebrated by the university grandiosely to encourage the spirit and well-being of women. With all these activities S.V. University stands strong in beholding the theme of gender equity as per the thoughts of the social reformers.

The Day care centre was established to support working women of S.V. University as well as employed women of Tirupati town to provide their kids quality care during day time in well-equipped and spacious premises of S.V. University laboratory nursery school. S V University Laboratory Nursery School has been providing, enriching and engaging experiences for young children since 1963. The Lab. Nursery School is managed by the Department of Home Science. Learning in the school is made enjoyable for young children through the play-way approach. The school provides an ideal early childhood program, an enriching experience for young children.

The Day Care Centre was established in the premises of SVU laboratory Nursery school attached to the Department of Home Science under UGC XI plan merged scheme during 2005. The Day Care Centre was established to support working women of SV university as well as employed women of Tirupati town, who have young children below 3 years and to provide quality care during day time in a cheerful, well-equipped and spacious rooms at SV University Laboratory Nursery school premises. The Day Care Centre has been maintained by the faculty of Department of Home Science who have expertise in developmental aspects of children.

SAFETY AND SOCIAL SECURITY

Safety and security of everyone on the campus is ensured by the University through well-defined systems. SVU university extends great importance to the safety of students' women and staff. In order to maintain Safety and Security to the Girls' students and women faculty, a committee has been constituted for Redress of Grievances. Our Internal Compliances committee stays alert all the time to prevent any sexual abuse towards students and female workers. We also focus on preventing this kind of harassments by using secret monitory services, which keep a keen eye on the entire campus. As a safe campus is an essential prerequisite to effective learning. University facilities provided for women are mentioned below

- Trained security guards appointed at key locations. Identity cards are mandated for all the students, staff and employees.
- There is a campus Police Station to take care of security aspects.
- CCTV cameras are installed at prominent locations. First Aid boxes are made available at various locations. Further, SVU has a health centre for handling medical emergencies.
- Women faculty members accompany girl students whenever they participate after college hours in outdoor or in-house activities.
- The girls students and women faculty installed DISHA App for their self-security.
- SVU also ensures social security through Anti-Ragging Committee, Student Grievance Redressal Committee and Internal Complaints Committee. Suggestion boxes are also placed and grievances, if any, are addressed. SVU ensures that there are absolutely no instances of ragging on the campus.
- CASH committee was appointed, VC as chairman. Sexual harassment issues are addressed by this committee.
- In hostel for every block Wardens and Deputy Wardens will be taking care of the block on shift system.

SRI VENKATESWARA UNIVERSITY: TIRUPATI CASH & CG (Committee Against Sexual Harassment and Corruption and Grievances)

In pursuance of guidelines issued by Supreme Court, UGC and in pursuance of Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, Anti Sexual Harassment Cell (Internal Complaints Committee) named "Jagrauthi" is constituted to provide a healthy and congenial atmosphere in the campus of Sri Venkateswara University,

Tirupati. The Committee against Sexual Harassment (CASH) was formed as part of a larger institutional framework for the creation of a safe, equitable and inclusive campus environment. The Committee's chief mandate includes considering complaints or grievances in relation to sexual harassment offences committed by students, faculty, staff and visitors on campus, and awareness-raising. The evolution of Committee has followed its own guiding ethic, of inclusion, from the very start. The drafting and deliberation process has been highly participative with all primary stakeholders involved at each stage. The result has been the NALSAR Sexual Harassment regulations and policy, which are nearing finalization after due deliberation with faculty and students. The participation of students, in particular, has ensured that the policy reflects the unique concerns and dynamics of a vibrant and diverse student population. The Committee is open to all persons of all positions and genders. It is also linked to the counseling cell and restorative justice wing so that any person facing any difficulty has a range of interventions, support systems and mechanisms apart from a formal complaints process to choose from. Awareness and sensitization are crucial to preventing sexual harassment. The Committee conducts sensitization aimed at facilitating respectful interaction between people and empowering people to speak out about any experience of harassment or any barriers that they face in the University. The present Committee consists of 15 members and is headed by Vice Chancellor S.V. University Tirupati. It is assisted by a support group of faculty and all of whom have undergone training for responding to people in distress and supporting them through any formal action or procedure with CASH or any external authority. It is hoped that with the institution of CASH, all persons will have a safe space to turn to in light of any difficulty and that the campus environment will be conducive to the growth and flourishing of all. In case of any grievances, CASH & CG is the University's instrument for addressing issues/grievances/cases of sexual harassment and recommending their redressal. This is in keeping with Article 21 of the Constitution of India which assures every individual the right to live with human dignity, free from exploitation. The State, therefore, is under a constitutional obligation to see that there is no violation of the fundamental right of any person. It is in this spirit that the policy of PRIST University is formulated to prevent sexual harassment of women on the campus. The policy extends to all students, faculty, and staff of the University.

The Committee take cognizance of all forms of sexual harassment towards women and promote gender sensitization Functions of CASH has two major functions: Preventive and Remedial Preventive

- To work towards creating an atmosphere promoting equality, nondiscrimination and gender sensitivity
- To promote and facilitate measures to create a work and study environment that is free of sexual harassment
- To receive and take cognizance of complaints made about sexual harassment at the university and give every complaint serious consideration.
- Crisis Management, Mediation and Counseling.
- To conduct enquiries into the complaints, place findings and recommendations regarding penalties against the harasser in accordance with the rules and procedures laid down by the GSCASH, before the University Administration Composition of CASH & CG The CASH shall have minimum 15 members. The composition of the members listed below.
- A presiding officer who shall be a woman employed at a senior level at the workplace from amongst the employees.
- Four faculty members (two men and two women) with a representation of different schools within PRIST preferably with experience in social work, legal knowledge and who are committed to the cause of the women.
- Representation from non-teaching staff.
- One outside expert from an NGO.
- Student Representatives.

NATIONAL WOMEN'S EQUALITY DAY

On 28th August, 2023

At Haripuram Colony, Tirupati

Women's Equality Day, observed annually on August 26, marks a global recognition of the ongoing struggle for equal rights and opportunities for women. It serves as a tribute to the universal suffrage movement, celebrates women's advancements, and reinforces the commitment to gender equality.

The theme for Women's Equality Day 2023 is "Embrace Equity," echoing through the strategic plan spanning from 2021 to 2026. This theme underscores the importance of achieving gender equality, not just for economic growth but also as a fundamental human right.

Women's Equality Day pays homage to the determination of women's rights activists who dedicated themselves to achieving equality. It acknowledges accomplishments in advancing women's rights and highlights the imperative of attaining genuine gender equality across all aspects of society. This day prompts reflection, raises awareness about prevailing gender disparities, and encourages consistent efforts to combat gender-based discrimination. It urges equal opportunities for women in education, workplaces, politics, and other arenas. The aim is to inspire individuals and groups to actively support gender equality for a more inclusive and just world.

History of Women's Equality Day

Women's Equality Day commemorates August 26, 1920, when women's votes officially became part of the US constitution. This day marks a turning point in the history of the struggle for equal treatment of women and women's rights.

National Women's Equality Day has been celebrated for many years. It was most widely celebrated in 1973. Since then, the United States President has proclaimed the date. The date has been selected to commemorate the day in the 1920s when Bainbridge Colby, who was the Secretary of State at the time, signed the proclamation that gave women in the United States the constitutional right to vote.

In 1920, the day stood for the result of 72 years of campaigning by a huge civil rights movement for women. Prior to movements like these, even respected thinkers such as Rousseau and Kant believed that women's inferior status in society was completely logical and reasonable; women were 'beautiful' and 'not fit for serious employment'.

Every year, Women's Equality Day is observed to recognize the achievements made by women. The day also serves to highlight the steps taken in the direction of achieving gender equality. The ability of women to vote on this day signified a new beginning for them, as well as new prospects and a step toward obtaining equal rights in society. The day offers a chance to evaluate the achievements, increase awareness of the remaining gender gaps, and promote continued efforts to combat gender-based discrimination and guarantee equal opportunities for women in politics, business, and other fields of endeavor.

Women's Equality Day stands as a yearly commitment to recognize achievements, acknowledge ongoing challenges, and work collectively towards gender equality. It's a day to renew our dedication to building a world where women's rights are honored and opportunities are equitable for all. The Centre for Women's Studies in collaboration with the Centre for Extension Studies of Sri Venkateswara University today celebrated Women's Equality Day at the Anganwadi Center in Haripuram Colony, Vidyanagar Tirupati on 28th August, 2023.

Prof. K. Sudha Rani, Director of the Centre for Women's Studies and the Centre for Extension Studies, who was the chief guest at the event said that women should be at the forefront in all fields to know their rights, to promote opportunities for women, to eliminate discrimination, to advance women's progress, to promote equal education for all, employment, etc.

Prof. R.B. Satyavathi, Head of Adult Department, said that teachers are very important in Anganwadi Centers as they play a prominent role in the growth of children and play a key role in teaching them traditional values. Dr. Thulasi Garu, Sectoral Officer, said that according to the current conditions, Anganwadi Teachers have been taught to teach gender equality education along with technical knowledge so that education will be shaped in a way that leads to gender equality in children. Anganwadi Teachers and SHG students participated in this program. Dr. D. Ramana, Dr. V. Jagadeswari, Dr. Rajeswari, Dr. K. SrilathaKishori and Dr. Suneetha are the Academic Consultancy of the women's Studies.

Madhuri Paradesi, Head, Dept. of Law, Sri Padmavathi Mahila Visvavidyalayam, Tirupati and Dr. Prabhakaran, Assistant Professor, Ambedkar Law College, Tirupati. Dr. V. Jagadeeswari, Academic Consultant, CWS invited the president, chief guest, guests of honour and the resource persons to the dais.

Prof. K. Sudha Rani explained about the purpose and importance of community development programmes organized by the CWS and CES in collaboration with BCDE. She also explained the motto of legal awareness programmes to women and girls.

Dr. Mahadevamma described about the status of women in the society in 21st century. She stated the gender discrimination. Dr. C. Sujathamma and Ms. Sai Kumari also spoke on this occasion.

In the forenoon session Dr. S. Madhuri Paradesi explained about the Fundamental Rights of women and children provided in the Constitution of India through Power Point Presentation. She explained that Indian Penal Code (IPC) 1860, is the official criminal code of the Republic of India and is a complete code intended to cover all aspects of criminal law which came into force in 1862 in all

British Presidencies. In her words IPC has given legal provisions to the rights of women and children. She detailed about different new acts and amendments made to existing acts for the protection of women and children from IPC (1860) to A.P. Disha Act (2019) including Nirbhaya and POCSO Acts.

In the afternoon session Dr. Prabhakaran explained about the sources for enactment of A.P. Disha Act, 2019. He differentiated the sections of A.P. Disha Act from that of IPC and Cr.P.C. He referred the judgements given on cases related to offences against women and children. He described the strength of Disha Act in punishing the accused in short period to provide the justice to the victims. He said that DISHA is a step towards the safety and location by Andhra Pradesh government. Disha SOS services helps the women and citizens in emergency situations. DISHA app also integrated with needful information like nearby safety places, nearby police stations, nearby hospitals and useful contacts. He suggested the girls to download and use the Disha SOS App to get the instant protection from the police in needy times. Dr. Ramana delivered vote of thanks. Teaching faculty from S.V. University Dr. Raja Rajeswari, Dr. Srilatha Kishori, Dr. Suneetha and from S.P.W. D & P.G. College Dr. Vijaya Kumari, Dr. Aruna Kumari, Dr. Srinath participated in this programme. S V U LABORATORY NURSERY SCHOOL

Attached to the Department of Home Science

S.V University, Tirupati.

S.V. University Laboratory Nursery School has been providing enriching and engaging experiences for young children since 1963. The Lab. Nursery School is managed by the Dept. of Home Science. Learning in the school is made enjoyable for young children through the play-way approach. The school provides an ideal early childhood program, an enriching experience for young children and an educational and practicum experience for students of Human Development and Child Welfare specialization of Home Science . It also serves as a laboratory for students who pursue M.Sc. course in other specializations of Home Science like Food Science Nutrition and Dietetics and Extension Management and Communication Technology. The school has reached a significant milestone of celebration of its Golden Jubilee during 2013.

Philosophy

The broad philosophy of school since inception is to provide opportunities for young children through enriched experiences in a child friendly environment which will facilitate a holistic and integrated development in different domains of child's life i.e., physical, emotional, social and cognitive development.

Classes

The children are provided with learning experiences age wise and are placed in different classes as follows

Junior Nursery: Children in the age range of 3 years to 3.5 years

Senior nursery: Children in the age range of 3.5 years to 4.5 years

Pre-Primary Class: Children in the age range of 4.5 years 5 + years

Administrative and Teaching Staff Members of Nursery School

The head of the Department of Home Science or Senior faculty of Human Development and Child Welfare branch will be the in-charge of the SV University Laboratory Nursery School. At present Dr. K.V. Sucharitha, Head, Dept. of Home Science is the in-charge of Nursery school.

Staff

Teaching Staff

The teachers play significant role in conducting pre-school programme. The teachers of Lab Nursery school are well qualified, trained and experienced in child development aspects. There are two teaching and two non-teaching staff in the nursery school.

Method of Education

The method of education in nursery school is 'play way' method. There will not be much emphasis on teaching of 3 R's (Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic). Instead the activities are planned such that they will prepare children for formal schooling through pre-reading, pre-writing skills and pre-arithmetic skills like number work.

Curriculum

The play-based curriculum is carefully planned to support children's growth and development, offering a rich variety of art, sensory, literacy, math, science, and music activities, in addition to block building, dramatic play, and outdoor play. The Pre-school curriculum is developed by the staff of Human Development and Child Welfare specialization of Home Science Department considering the principles and Objectives of Pre-school education.

The important activities of curriculum are;

- Informal talk
- Rhymes
- Story telling
- Creative activities
- Readiness activities
- Science experience
